Dear Mr. Von Struckmann:

This responds to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request of July 1, 2020, for all and any records in any language detailing the special programs General Hans Kammler worked on during WW2 in Germany, Czechoslovakia and Poland, including any records obtained as to his existence in the U.S. or other allied country after the war. Your request was received in this office on July 1, 2020.

To determine the existence of Army intelligence investigative records responsive to your request, checks were made of all relevant U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command (INSCOM) holdings. These checks disclosed no Army intelligence investigative records pertaining to your request. If such an Army file did previously exist, it is likely that it qualified for deletion from our holdings in accordance with Army Regulations governing the disposition of intelligence files. Screening takes place daily in the U.S. Army Investigative Records Repository located at this headquarters, and large numbers of files are eliminated in this routine process.

This no record response is made on behalf of Major General Gary W. Johnston, Commanding, U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command, who is the Initial Denial Authority for Army intelligence investigative and security records under the Freedom of Information Act. You may appeal this decision to the Secretary of the Army. If you wish to file an appeal, you should forward it to this office. Your appeal must be postmarked no later than 90 calendar days from the date of this letter (excepting Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays). The mailing address is:
